

QUIZ

Circle the correct answer.

1. True or False – The HIPAA Privacy Rule reduces restrictions on use and disclosure of PHI and gives patients greater access to their medical records..
2. True or False – A “covered entity” may be a healthcare provider or a healthcare clearinghouse.
3. True or False – Protected Health Information (PHI) may be given to you in any form; oral or recorded, on paper or sent electronically.
4. True or False – The HIPAA Privacy Rule is about the use and disclosure of PHI.
5. True or False – Release of PHI can only be completed if you know the person you are sharing the information with.
6. True or False – Authorization to release PHI must be in written form by the patient.
7. True or False – Each authorization form covers only the material mentioned by the form and has no expiration date.
8. True or False – Certain times it may be necessary to obtain PHI without authorization because of a threat to public health.
9. True or False – You should only release the minimum amount of PHI needed to get the job done.
10. True or False – A patient may request a history of non-routine disclosures of their PHI dating back six years prior to the request date.